Besides, the college provides medical insurance to all the students for a certain sum.

Activities

Student life is always at a high in any B School. Learning is extended beyond the classrooms and is just the right mix of regulation and responsibility. Students have a major role to play in organizing many events such as Cultural and Sports festivals. This gives the students a first hand experience of managing roles and responsibilities. Apart from this, the Student Affairs Committee SAC, as it is often called, also coordinates and organizes various events and festivals throughout the year.

AKGIM has got various committees such as Cultural, Publication, Sports, Social Welfare, and Alumni etc. under ‘SAMATVA’. Every student has to be a member of these committees that gives them an opportunity to express the best of them and learn from others.

Students of the college are encouraged to participate in various cultural, social and literary activities like ‘Vibrations’ the cultural fest and ‘Saksham’, the sports meet along with various other events. These events bring in students from various parts of the country converging to compete with each other.

We at AKGIM not only carve future managers, also, we try to instigate social responsibility among students. AKGIM organizes Blood Donation Camps and visits to old age Homes also in this respect.

AAYAM-AKGIM Journal of Management

AAYAM is a Bi-annual journal, approved by UGC and enlisted by international aggregators. Its objective is to provide a valuable forum for applied research on management-orientated themes and topics, to practicing corporate and academicians. It lays emphasis on the understanding of management theories and the context, systems, processes as drivers of the performance of organizations. The journal seeks research contributions on the challenges and management issues of emerging economies. AKGIM also publishes RAYS, an annual news letter published by the students covering various aspects of college happenings, students’ creativity and achievements.
SPEED Center

SPEED is a distinctive & exhaustively thought out program introduced by AKGIM, Ghaziabad. Its aim is to nurture and sharpen the talent, managerial and decision making skills of select students who shall be cut-above warriors in the corporate. SPEED has been designed along a module to test the initiative, stimulate the creativity and provoke the intellect, energy and enthusiasm of the concerned students.

AIEDEC

We believe that every youngster is a unique set of potential for excelling in some areas or the other. Needless to say that students coming from cities or those hailing from rural belts in the country also have equally some unique ideas/solutions and commercial proposals which if given a facilitating atmosphere and support from experts from different walks of life may contribute profusely to the society. Keeping this fact in mind, the institute has taken a well thought-out ambitious initiative of establishing AKGIM INCUBATION AND ENTERPRENEURSHIP DEVELOPMENT CENTER (AIEDEC) in this behalf.

International/National Conferences

The Conferences held in the college provide a great learning opportunity for those who organize them. Students are encouraged to become a part of it so that they have an overall enriching experience both in terms of the content of the conferences as well as the nitty-gritty’s involved while organizing such events.

MDPs and FDPs

(Management Development Programs and Faculty Development Programs)

In order to build effective capabilities in academia and industry work-force in the country, AKGIM has been regularly conducting MDPs and FDPs across verticals of relevance. Such programs are developed taking into account the need of the present industry requirements and changes happening in the business world. Accordingly, the institute is trying to build capabilities in the areas of Marketing, Finance, Human Resource and Entrepreneurship and in many other evolving domains.

Business Simulation Games

Business Simulation games are techniques for developing, testing, and evaluating business strategies in a virtual risk-free environment to get a feel of what actually happens in the real business world. Every year AIHA organizes Business Simulation Games “Chanakya”, in the AKGIM campus where participants from the industry come together to play the game and in the process imbibe new forms of competitive behavior. The business simulation game is conducted for AKGIM students also for deep learning.

Live BRM Projects

A unique facet of AKGIM is that we provide our students a platform for research also and for this, we encourage our students to write research papers as well as take up live industry projects.
Training and Placement

Special efforts are made to groom the students to meet the standards of the industry, both in professional knowledge and soft skills. The institute provides support to its students in their training and placement by a full-fledged Centralized Training & Placement Cell. It helps the students to find suitable placement in various industries. T&P cell also organizes Industrial Visits so that students can correlate class room teaching with practical experience.
